Dear Loyoleans,

Christmas is a celebration of God's unconditional love—a reminder that Jesus became one of us to teach compassion, generosity, and care for one another. In this spirit of giving, we at Loyola continue the tradition of the Joy of Giving Week, a time to reach out in solidarity to those who struggle, suffer, or simply have less than we do. This is where our enduring motto, "In Caritate et Justitia", becomes a living reality.

Many of you may already be familiar with the Tarumitra Centre, a Biodiversity Park envisioned and initiated by Loyola School. This project aims to be a transformative space where our students—and eventually students from schools across the region—learn to care for our common home in a world confronted by climate change, pollution, and ecological distress.

On 11 November 2025, we held the groundbreaking ceremony in the presence of Jesuit Fathers, dignitaries, LAA members, teachers, and students—a proud moment for the entire Loyola community. The Tarumitra Centre is an ambitious initiative, one that goes beyond the scope of a typical school project. It is a legacy we wish to create for future generations. But to bring this vision to life, we need the support of committed, environment-conscious partners—especially our alumni.

With deep hope and trust, I invite you to join hands with us and support this mission of healing and protecting our planet. The estimated project cost is ₹14 crores, and every contribution—big or small—brings us one step closer to making this dream a reality.

Your generosity can make a lasting impact.

Please note the following ways you can contribute:

- Donations above ₹1,00,000 will be acknowledged on a dedicated donor plaque.
- Rooms or specific areas may be sponsored and named in honour of the donor or a loved one.
- Contributions in the form of construction materials, furniture, or equipment are also welcome. Please contact the school office for details.
- Donations by any batch will also be gladly accepted.

By supporting the Tarumitra Centre, you are not just donating—you are investing in sustainability, education, and the future of countless young people. As Loyola enters its 80th year, this Centre will stand as our collective gift to Jamshedpur, a living testament to the values that shaped us as Loyoleans.

Let us come together once again as a community that cares, loves, and leads.

Wishing you the peace and joy of Christmas, and a grace-filled New Year 2026!
Live Loyola! Love Loyola! Jai Loyola!

Warm regards,

Fr. Vinod Fernandes, SJ, PhD
